Rocks community news notes

By CASSIE BALDWIN

Rocks-Aug. 6: Still having very hot weather now. Nice rains make things grow.

There was a good turn out at Rocks on Sunday. Right many people were back from vacation. Glad they got back safe. Special music was featured at the night service. It was good to have Mr. Bernard Slayton as a visitor.

Liberty Baptist Church celebrated their sesquicental anniversary this Sunday, Aug. 12th. Some from Rocks attended this special service.

A youth cookout will be on Aug. 18 at 5 p.m. at Ruth Caldwell's.

Central Baptist Church is making progress on their new parsonage. Hope they will be getting a new pastor soon.

It was a miracle that Debbie Ferguson didn't get hurt last week when her car turned over on a county road.

Get-well wishes go out to Mary Jones, who went to see the doctor this week. May she have a speedy recovery.

Get-well wishes go out to Mrs. Lockie Martin and Mrs. Margaret Marshall, who went to see the doctor at Appomattox on Monday, Aug. 6.

The Hancock Circle from Elon Baptist Church had a picnic down at Old Rocks on Aug. 8.

Congratulations to Ophelia Martin who won the birthday cake from Food World on Aug. 8.

The Prayerline Circle had their meeting with Udell Ranson on Aug. 9.

Get-well wishes go out to Bessie Baldwin, who entered Lynchburg General Hospital on Tuesday.

Robert Taylor returned home Wednesday from Lynchburg General Hospital. A quick recovery is wished him.

Get-well wishes go out to Thomas Richardson, who entered Lynchburg General Hospital on Wednesday. May his stay there be very short.

Wiley Richardson continues in Virginia Baptist Hospital. Get-well wishes are with him.

A very small number attended the funeral of Eunice Scruggs at Shorter Funeral Home of Farmville on Saturday morning, Aug. 4. Sympathy goes out to the loved ones. She had a fall before she passed away and broke her hip. She was loved by all who knew her.

Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Crump have returned from a nice 15 day trip to Alaska. Glad they got back safe.

Glad to hear Mr. and Mrs. Jim Frank Ranson have another grandson, born to Mr. and Mrs. Walter Foster of Madison Heights on July 6. This is their third grandson, Wallace James.

Work day at Rocks Church will be Aug. 18. Meet at 9:30 a.m. Be on hand to take part in it.

Seven acteens went to Eagle Eyrie last week for the meeting there.

Omar Burnette in a revival at Glenn Memorial Church at Prospect last week.

Glad to hear Bertha Shelton is doing much now is Charlottesville.

Did you know 549 people have died on Virginia highways so far this year? Please drive more careful.

You can see the Olympics on televisios, but if you go down to Tommy Spates, you can see one on his farm that is real.

A speedy recovery is wished Eula Mae Ramsey's two sisters, Gertrude and Ruth, who are not well.

Mrs. Carrie Richardson spent Monday night with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Almond.

A bridal shower was given for Mitzi Baldwin and Barry Letterman Saturday night at Elon Baptist Church. The women of the church served as hostesses.

Best wishes go out to this fine couple.

Charlotte Ruritans plan music festival benefit

The Charlotte Ruritan Club will sponsor a music festival Sept. 1 at the Ruritan Park near Charlotte Court House from 8 p.m. to midnight.

Net proceeds will be used to help Hunter Knott, an elementary school student from the Rough Creek area of Charlotte County who was seriously injured in a swimming accident this Spring.

Hunter has been hospitalized since the accident, and has incurred enormous medical bills.

A variety of music will be provided, including local talent. Performing groups will include The Country Cousins, Briery Creek, The Eureka Keys, and the Roe Fannon Group.

Tickets are $4 for adults, $1 for children ages 6-12, and those under age 6 will be admitted free.

Food and restrooms will be provided.

Tickets can be obtained at the gate. For donations or information please contact any member of the Charlotte Ruritan Club.
